Pastor's Corner

Reflection: “Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come and make our dwelling in him.”

“Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.”

John 14:23

These words from today's Gospel correlate to the statement of faith found in the Prologue of the same Gospel. The core message of it is the Incarnation of the Lord: “The Word became flesh and dwelt among us.” The exact translation is that “He pitched his tent among us.” In our expression today, this would be, “He moved into the house across the street.” Today's Gospel takes the dwelling of God on earth to a deeper spiritual level. He is not just here among us. He is within us. He is within us as a community of faith, the worshiping Body, the Church. He is within us in the union of all believers into the Mystical Body of Christ. He is all this and much more. He is within each of us.

We can speak to God all day, not addressing ourselves to some being “out there somewhere.” He is not a distant and far away God. He is in our midst and within our hearts. He has given us His Word, His Spirit and His Peace!

This Year's Sacraments: I am happy that all Sacraments for this year (First Communion and Confirmation) are done. Praise God! I would like to thank Bishop Edward Weisenburger for administering the Sacrament of Confirmation, my Vicars, Fr. John Gonzales and Fr. Joji Vincent, the Religious Education Team headed by Laura Stehle, and Teen Coordinator, Kim Sisson. After two years of not having in-person celebrations of the sacraments; this year, we are truly grateful for all these blessings and meaningful celebrations.

Support Our OMOS School: I would like to thank everyone who supported the OMOS School Raffle. Thank you for buying the tickets. I ask you to pray for all our students as they finish up the last week of school. Let us congratulate the eighth graders for the wonderful talents they showcased last Tuesday, March 17th. It was indeed, an evening to remember. Kudos to our eighth graders! Thank you also to our Faculty and Staff for their hard work and support! One important thing, please help disseminate information that OMOS school is now enrolling students for the 2022 – 2023 School Year. Please contact Aydee Felix in the Parish School Office at 520-747-1027.

Be Generous: I am again reminding you that our parish depends on each of us. We have to be generous with our Time, Talent and Treasure. After the pandemic, we are easing back to our normal conduct of affairs. Please consider volunteering. We need more hospitality ministers, Liturgical Ministers, Altar Servers, Front Office Volunteers and many more. Please contact the office for more information.

Lastly, please send your Annual Catholic Appeal pledge or contribution now. The deadline is May 31st.

Thank you! May God continue to bless you more abundantly and keep you always safe.

Yours in God's love,

Fr. Arnold Aurillo

Scripture Reflection

Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 22, 2022

Acts 15:1-2, 22-29; Rev21:10-14, 22-23; John 14:23-29

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.”

Ah, to be in peace. No stress, no worries. Is that how you define peace?

Jesus says, “Not as the world gives do I give it to you.”

Jesus gives us peace that is much deeper, longer lasting than the world can give. He gives us inner peace that we can't get by buying things, or by having money, or by having millions of friends or likes online. Those things are fleeting, and the feelings gotten from them last even less time.

Things were not peaceful for the early Gentiles who became Christians. They were told conflicting things. Get circumcised. Don't eat this. It's ok to eat that. Don't have 700 wives. All this led to one of the first conferences to define what Christianity would be. They met in Jerusalem and with the Holy Spirit's guidance, set some ground rules that still exist. Men are not required to be circumcised to be Christian.

We are living in a time of conflicting opinions. You may not be sure which way to turn. Some people want to go backwards. Some think the Latin Mass is the way to go. That Pre-Vatican II was right and now that Pope Francis is implementing more and more Vatican II changes, we need to put a halt to them. But think about the Vatican II Council. Think about how many Bishops were in attendance. Jesus said where two or more gathered in His name, He was there. There were many Bishops gathered in His name. They were led by the Holy Spirit when they were debating how to guide the church forward. What is happening now is a result of how Jesus wants the church to be now. To fight against this is to turn against what Jesus wants for His church.

The peace Jesus gives us lasts forever. Once Jesus ascended to heaven, the Father sent the Holy Spirit to all of us. Our Advocate to teach us and remind us of all we need to know.

Love God. Love one another. Take care of each other.

If we do these things, then we would have less stress, fewer worries and much more real peace. Don't you think so? Jesus said so. Believe Him!

Listening and Journeying Together
May 22—29, 2022

Join Us Tuesday, May 24th at 6:00pm
To Pray the Laudato Si' Rosary
Followed by Benediction

“To contemplate creation is to hear a message, to listen to a paradoxical and silent voice”. (LS 84)

Here is a prayer to invite you to contemplate creation. It can be done inside or outside.

Linger: Walk or look around you slowly. Notice if some member of creation attracts your attention, a cloud, a tree, a plant indoors. Allow yourself to linger, to pause at whatever attracts your attention and be present to what is there. Use your senses to take in the wonder of this creature: the colors, shapes, smells, textures.

Listen: What might this being be trying to tell you? What might God be saying to you through this element of creation? Consider entering into dialogue with this member of creation, calling to mind St. Francis talking to the birds and calling Brother Sun and Sister Moon. You might ask a question. Then listen. Just be open to what might arise.

Love: When you are ready to leave, find a way to offer love, by saying thanks, offering a prayer to God for this encounter, wishing your new friend well. Find a way to acknowledge the gift you have received and your desire to give something in return.

If there is time, you might try this process of Linger, Listen, and Love with another element in creation. (Laudato Si' Movement Prayer Book, <https://mail.laudatosimovement.org/landing/prayerbook>)

Pray for our Earth

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures. You embrace with your tenderness all that exists. Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty.

Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one. O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes. Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction. Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth. Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature as we journey towards your infinite light. We thank you for being with us each day. Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.

(Pope Francis, Laudato Si', 2015)

Last Rites for the Dying/Extreme Unction

The Last Rites are a collection of prayers and sacraments that are administered to a person who is in grave danger of dying. They incorporate the Sacraments of Confession (Apostolic Pardon), Anointing of the Sick, and if possible, Eucharist, with the prayers of Apostles' Creed, and Our Father. Attending to the spiritual needs of the dying is one of the most important duties of a Priest. None of us can choose when it's time for us to enter Heaven. Only by God's will can we be called and a priest must prepare for this. It is desirable that the priest be notified when death is inevitable and not at the very last minute when he may or may not be able to get to the location of the dying person. Please use your judgement but give our priests as much "heads up" as possible to insure that your loved one will receive the last rites.

Call the parish office at 747-1321 at any time of the day or night and choose the "emergency" option (#1). Thank you.
